Dear Member

There are four vacancies on Council to be filled this year following the requirement for Tony Barnes to stand down following his leaving the industry. I have written to Tony a letter of thanks for his service on Council. Martin Cockerill, Colin Herron and Vincent Lumb are required to retire this year, having served on Council for at least 3 years. All have intimated a desire to stand for re-election.

New blood is essential to maintain the vitality and vigour of any organisation and BPTA is no different. This is your opportunity to become part of Council and so influence and improve the Association's service to the membership.

The Council meets four times a year and, if elected, you would be expected to take some part on one of its committees. Not an onerous task, but essential to the smooth running of the Association. Travel expenses are available to all Council members, if required.

Please consider standing for election, complete the enclosed nomination form and return it to the Association office before 5pm on 15th May 2015, when nominations will close.

Yours sincerely

Charles W Greenslade
Secretary
